

SHANNON KANESHIGE

Operations Manager

shannon.kaneshige@bodhiresearchgroup.com

Shannon Beaudry Kaneshige is Operations Jedi at Bodhi Research Group. Her duties include operations, document infrastructure, and client services.

Mrs. Kaneshige comes to Bodhi Research Group with 15 years of experience in cultural institutions, nonprofits, small business, and start-ups. Most recently Mrs. Kaneshige consulted with environmental, charitable, and social justice organizations in Honolulu, Hawai'i, assisting them with the creation of internal policy, business plans, and program evaluations. She has organized multi-day conferences with over 400 attendees, managed large-scale database moves, and has presented at several academic conferences.

Mrs. Kaneshige received her Masters of Arts in Sociology from Roosevelt University and earned the prestigious Bronze R Award for her work as a founding member of the Roosevelt University Sociological Society. Mrs. Kaneshige was awarded The Mansfield Scholarship for two consecutive years. She has published sociological essays in conference proceedings and periodicals and is also a published poet.
