

DR. SENTHIL SUNDARAM

Chief Investment Officer
Kula Investments

Speaker

A 25-year veteran of the hedge fund industry, Senthil has extensive trading, portfolio construction, and risk management experience with a diverse set of investment strategies, especially those that lend themselves to a systematic (computer-driven) approach. From 2010 - 2018, Senthil fulfilled both Chief Risk Officer and Head of Market Risk roles at Two Sigma Investments, one of only a handful of companies at the leading edge of the systematic style. Prior to that, Senthil was involved with a diverse array of investment strategies at Deephaven Capital Management in Minneapolis, Perry Capital in NYC, and Lincoln Capital in Chicago. Senthil has a PhD in Physics from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.
