

JIM KEOHANE

Former President & CEO
Healthcare of Ontario Pension Plan

Keynote Speaker

Jim Keohane is currently a member of the Board of Directors for the Alberta Investment Management Corporation (AIMCo) and was President and CEO of the Healthcare of Ontario Pension plan from 2011 until his recent retirement in March 2020. He joined HOOPP in 1999, bringing more than 25 years of institutional investing experience with several national firms. Mr. Keohane is a frequent speaker on retirement income security and liability driven investing. Jim was the architect of HOOPP's Liability Driven Investment strategy and is considered a global expert in this area. He is a strong advocate for collective pension schemes and has championed several studies on the topic.

After completing his Bachelor of Science degree at the University of Ottawa, Mr. Keohane obtained his MBA at Queen's University. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst and has completed the Directors Education Program (Rotman School of Business) at the Institute of Corporate Directors. Jim serves on the Board of TransCanada Capital, and is a former board member of Queen's University where he was Chairman of the Investment Committee and Chairman of the Pension Committee. He is a former member of the Board of the Canadian Coalition on Good Governance, and previously served on the Board of Home Capital. He was selected as a member of the Ontario Technical Advisory Panel on Retirement Income Security.