

DR. KEN PU

Computer Science professor
Ontario Tech University

Speaker

Ken Pu earned his Ph.D. in Computer Science from the University of Toronto in 2006. He has since held a position of professor in Computer Science at Ontario Tech University in Oshawa. Specializing in large-scale information systems, his research primarily focuses on artificial intelligence and trust in database systems.

Recently, Dr. Pu is particularly interested in the implications of generative AI-powered software systems with human-level cognition and intelligence in areas such as education, social norms, economy, and politics, viewing these developments with both excitement and concern.