

MARK HANNOUSH

Managing Director
Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan

Speaker

As a Managing Director in the Finance department, Mark Hannoush leads a team that specializes in conducting due diligence at the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan in Toronto, Canada. His role is to ensure that operational risk management is assessed and mitigated, as well as to provide direct support and assistance with deal implementation for the Plan's External Manager Program which includes a variety of investment products from Hedge Funds to Private Equity Funds, Managed Accounts and Managed Account Platforms. Mark also manages the Business Investigative Due Diligence process in support of the Investment Division. The Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan has been a significant investor in the External Manager space for over two decades. Mark was formerly in charge of the Finance function for the Equities group within the Finance department, where he managed the middle and back office functions and processes for all internally traded and externally managed public equity portfolios. He began his career as an auditor with Ernst & Young LLP in Ottawa, Canada where he earned his CPA (CA) designation. He is also a CFA Charterholder.
